Vendors Find Membership Invaluable

"RI Hospitality Allied members are a vital and active group within the organization. We meet every month and the turn-out is fabulous. There are golf tournaments, awards dinners and other great networking and referral opportunities. You can't ask for more than that! We are now working on an Allied Vendor's Resource Directory that will be given to all the members, including restaurants and hotels. What a great way to reach customers! RIHA has certainly surpassed my expectations of being the best networking organization around!"

"As a CPA I get to interact with many clients in the hospitality industry and I'm constantly reminded of the trust that members have in the RI Hospitality Association to provide assistance with everything from new sales tax rules to help finding a special product or service."
