“Anytime I have a question or problem – be it legislation or finding the best resources to solve a problem – Rhode Island Hospitality is always there! They have walked me through problems every step of the way. You can’t ask for a better organization to represent the restaurants in our state. Superb!” Tom Callahan, Café Zeldá, Member – 10 years

“Rhode Island Hospitality takes care of its members in a big way – always providing programs that save money: credit card discounts, utility discounts and Serv Safe programs. They are doing a great job!” Jeff Hirsh, Lobster Pot, RI Hospitality Member – 10 years

“So many of us are hands on restaurant owners dealing with the day to day operation of our businesses. Being involved has shown me that while operating my business, RIHTA has been fighting all the legislation and proposed laws that could put us out of business. RIHTA is a powerful organization and being a member is like hiring a business manager to watch your back while you worry about the day to day problems of being in the hospitality business.”
